

Abortions by Irish residents 2000 to 2019

Abortions were declining over the past 17 years due to the work of voluntary counselling agencies some of whom received Government grants. No pro-life agency gets grants anymore. unless it agrees to arrange or refer for abortions. The core of our Government has no respect for the rights of conscience or Christian morality.